

Jobs of Tomorrow Scholarships

Information for students

Jobs needing skills in science, technology, engineering or mathematics (STEM) are expected to be in high demand in the future. If you are interested in training in these skills, you may be eligible for a $1,000 Jobs of Tomorrow scholarship under the NSW Government's Smart and Skilled Program

Am I eligible to apply for a Jobs of Tomorrow Scholarship?

To be eligible for a scholarship, you must first meet the Smart and Skilled eligibility criteria:

- 15 years old or over
- no longer at school
- living or working in NSW
- an Australian citizen, Australian permanent resident, Australian humanitarian visa holder or New Zealand citizen

You must also:

- have enrolled in a qualification that is eligible for a Jobs of Tomorrow Scholarship with an approved Smart and Skilled training provider
- commence training on or after 1 January 2016.

Who gets a scholarship?

The scholarships are available on a first come, first served basis. In each year, the first 6,250 eligible students to successfully apply will be offered a scholarship.

How do I know if a qualification is eligible for a Jobs of Tomorrow Scholarship?

Selected higher-level qualifications – up to Advanced Diploma level – in broad areas such as nursing and healthcare, engineering and information and communications technology are eligible for a scholarship.

See the list of eligible qualifications on our web page at smartandskilled.nsw.gov.au/for-students/scholarships/jobs-of-tomorrow-scholarships.

The qualifications eligible for a Jobs of Tomorrow Scholarship will have a yellow 'JoT Scholarship' flag on the Course Finder, on the Smart and Skilled website (smartandskilled.nsw.gov.au).

How do I apply for a Jobs of Tomorrow Scholarship?

Once you have enrolled in an eligible qualification and have received a Notification of Enrolment document from your training provider which confirms your enrolment, you can apply for a scholarship through Service NSW. To apply:

1. Go to www.service.nsw.gov.au/transaction/apply-jobs-tomorrow-scholarship
2. Login to your existing MyServiceNSW Account or create an account if you do not already have one
3. Complete the online application for a scholarship.
4. Select 'Apply' to submit your application.
5. Complete the identity check form.
6. Select 'Submit' to complete the identity check and finish your application.

To complete your application you will need:

- your Commitment ID (from the Notification of Enrolment document)
- one of the following documents to verify your identity:
 - Australian driver licence
 - Australian passport
 - Australian visa
 - Australian Medicare card
 - Australian Birth Certificate
 - Australian Marriage Certificate
 - Australian Change of Name Certificate
 - Australian Certificate of Registration by Descent
 - Australian Citizenship Certificate
 - Australian ImmiCard

Note: If your application is successful, you will also need to supply your Australian bank account details so you can be paid your scholarship. You can do this when you apply or update your application online at a later date as required.

You will be notified of the status of your application by SMS or email.

Remember, scholarships are limited to the first 6,250 successful applicants, so make sure you apply early.

When will I be paid my Jobs of Tomorrow Scholarship?

If your application is successful, you will be paid an initial instalment of $500 after your training provider has confirmed you have commenced training.

The final instalment of $500 will be paid to you after your training provider has confirmed that you have successfully completed your training.

It may take up to 8 weeks for your provider to confirm your commencement and/or completion of training.

Is there a limit to the number of scholarships I can get?

You can only receive one scholarship between 1 January 2016 and 31 December 2019.

INDUSTRY PARTNERSHIPS

What other benefits and opportunities are there for scholarship students?

The NSW Government is partnering with a number of employers and employer groups to provide additional support for scholarship recipients. By contacting an industry partner during your training, you could be offered opportunities such as mentoring, networking and work experience.

Further details will be available on our web page. We encourage you to check back on a regular basis as we continue to grow the number of industry partners.

For more information about the program

For more information about Jobs of Tomorrow Scholarships, and updates on eligible qualifications and available industry partnerships, check the Jobs of Tomorrow page in the “For Students” section of the Smart and Skilled website smartandskilled.nsw.gov.au/for-students/scholarships/jobs-of-tomorrow-scholarships.

For assistance with your application

For help with your application, you can visit the Service NSW Website (www.service.nsw.gov.au/transaction/apply-jobs-tomorrow-scholarship), call Service NSW directly on 13 77 88 or visit a Service NSW service centre (www.service.nsw.gov.au).

© State of New South Wales through Department of Industry, Skills and Regional Development 2016. The information contained in this publication is based on knowledge and understanding at the time of writing (March 2017). However, because of advances in knowledge, users are reminded of the need to ensure that the information upon which they rely is up to date and to check the currency of the information with the appropriate officer of the Department of Industry, Skills and Regional Development or the user's independent advisor.